

GEMINI LUNATION 2009

Full Moon in Sagittarius .. Sunday, June 7 at 2:12 pm
Labyrinth Walk .. Monday, June 8 at Noon

What do I choose to move toward releasing from my life as the moon wanes to new?

How was I feeling and what was my mood before this labyrinth walk?

Did anything capture my attention on my way to/from or at the labyrinth?

How was the weather (or the river)? Did it mirror what I was feeling/contemplating?

Did I walk with a specific question or issue in mind?

Which card(s) did I draw?

Did I receive insights?

Did I notice any coincidences/synchronicities?

How did I feel after the labyrinth walk? Did I notice a change in energy level or mood?

Additional comments:

Honor the Balsamic Moon from June 19-21. This is a powerful time to rest and replenish.
